WATSON

Has Been Again Indicted For Violation of the Postal Laws.

Editor Brann's Opinion of Tommie Will Interest Many Readers.

A Most Intolerant and Narrow Minded Little Blatherskite.

WORSE THAN BENEDICT ARNOLD

Now that Thomas E. Watson, who has failed to destroy the Catholic church in America, has been again indicted for violation of the postal laws, W. C. Brann's opinion of Tommie's tommyrot, expressed in 1897, will doubtless interest many of our readers. He said:

Somebody whom I have never harmless sends me an A. P. tract entitled "A Good Catholic" and signed by Tommie Watson, who once tried to run for Vice President on the Middle-of-the-Muck ticket—for the purpose of turning back the reform tide and electing the humble peon of the gold-burgers, high-tariffites and trusts. Tommie's Ape tract is simply an "ad" for a weekly paper which he seems to be getting out all by his little self somewhere in Goobertown. On the front elevation of this bombshell with which he expects to blow the Vatican across the yellow Tiber the statement is made in display type that, for the trifling sum of $1 in hand paid, "You can read the brilliant, patriotic editorials of Hon. Thos. E.
Watson" for an entire year—granting of course that their Promethean brilliance fall to set your shirl-tail afire in the meantime. There is no provision for the return of your money in case Tommie's exuberant patriotism should overpower you.
We are then assured that "The Pope or American Cardinal can coerce" the architect of the "brilliant and patriotic editorials" aforesaid. Now that's the kind of a man I admire! Hang a Georgia editor, say I, who sells himself to the Pope of Rome for six bits, or rushes around to an American Cardinal every morning bareheaded with the profane kiss on his labored jucubrations, humbly asking permission to print. The brilliant and patriotic editor of a Georgia paper having a paid circulation of 710 copies can not be too independent.
2. Is solemn duty to keep watch and ward over this country from breakfast with the Pope and his minions to a kibosh on every conspiracy of the Pope. Like most brilliant patriots, Tommie has sacrificed a great deal for conscience's sake.
When he tried to save the country by playing second tail to the Bryan kite for the purpose of dividing the reform forces and electing a Republican President, the Pope and all his "priest-led citizens" straddled his collar, rode him into an open grave and piled a Cathedral on top of him to hold him down—at least I suppose they did, from the way in which this raucous little Bufuzz is chewing the rag. Had he been "A Good Catholic" he would have been a better citizen than he is. He did not Dick Bland have to hide out in the Ozark hills to escape the Presidential nomination the moment it was rumored that his wife was a "Romanist"? Did not Generals Sherman and Sheridan have to insulate themselves to avoid the Presidential lightning? Tommie played around the same continuously because they were Catholics? Sure!
Tommie is doubtless correct in his assertion that the Pope controls American politics and dictates every act of Congress. That is amply proven by the fact that after all these years the Catholics have a representative in before breakfast Cabinet. That all Catholics are sworn enemies of this republic and peons of the Pope is demonstrated by the fact that the "Romish" Attorney General refused to permit his people to erect at their own expense a chapel on Government ground at West Point—the general public believes in tax money to maintain an Episcopalian clergyman at that place.
Tommie protests that he is both a Baptist and devoid of bigotry. If he can make this claim good I will understand to secure for him an engagement at $1,000 a day in a dime museum as the greatest curio ever seen in this country. Doubtless there are many good people who are Battists, but God's sunlight never fell upon one who was not a bigot. The man who concedes that it is possible for one to reach heaven except he be soured bodily into some sacred slop-tub is not a Baptist. If he thinks he is he has made a faulty diagnosis of his disease. It is the sworn foe of Catholicism, yet not one of its members in a million has the remotest idea what Catholicism means. It assumes that the presbody of Catholics are ignorant clowns, while itself absorbing 60 percent. of the illiterates of this land.
The more ignorant an animal is the more bigoted Baptist it is likely to be. I can not at present think of a single American of distinction who was a member of that denomination I have passed in mental review the great American statesmen, soldiers, authors and inventors, and find not one among them who was a battist. Garfield was a Campbellite and had he not been murdered he would have been suspected that he was a great man. If any one of the immortals was of the Baptist secession he was probably ashamed of that fact, as he kept it concealed.

It is possible that in soaking the original sin out of a fellow any latent germ of genius he possesses may be extracted also. Tommie solemnly assures us that Catholics dare not read a book or paper that has not been formally approved by the Pope. What a foolish falsehood! I'll wager a pint of peanuts that Watson can not name half a dozen American books, papers or magazines that bear the Papsi imprimatur, and another pint of the same luscious circus fruit that even his own rabid A. P. rat has ever been placed in the index prohibitorius. If it is not there, every Catholic in this country is privileged to read it without consulting Rome. Of the most bigoted sect of pseudo-religious fanatics that ever cursed this country, the Hon.
Tommie Watson is perhaps the most intolerant and narrow-brained little blather-skite. Avoant! thou contumacious little coyote, thou pes-tiferous pole-cat. Benedict Arnold was a scoundrel when compared to you, for his treason was open and avowed, while you stabbed the cause of the people in a friendly embrace, struck it in the back. You have had no parallel since Judas Iscariot conspired with the plutocracy to betray the idol of the people—and even Judas had decency enough to hang himself as expiation of his infamy.
Shut up, thou hatchet-faced, spleenetic-headed, narrow-headed little hypocrite, for verily the world is awake of Tommie Watson. His
"brilliant and patriotic editorials" are used only to underlay carpses, paper pantry shelves and for purposes less polite. I cheerfully risk my reputation as a prophet on the prediction that in less than two years his windy little "reform" paper will go to the bone-pile. Tommie, you are the pin-worm of American politics—a more aggravating little parasite than even Miltonus Park. Take a gentleman's advice and apply the surgical pedal to your wheezy calloped of the political stage in time to avoid the coming cataclysm of applauded cabbage and has-been cats. The day of your destiny's over and the star of your fate is in the mullagatawny. You are simply an fragment of worthless political seaweed cast with flabby jelly fish and dead stinging rays upon the shore.
There to rot and be foul of the atmosphere. You have "a very ancient and fish-like smell, a smell not of the newest." You may get a laug out, but will only evoke laughter or disgust. Occasionally some lonely Middle-of-the-Roadster ragging his No. 12's painfully through the dust may turn to look at you, perhaps toss you a dime; but you are politically dead. You may play the Baptist racket for all it's worth; but the brethren, while long on zeal are shy on boodles. Even Jehovah Boanerges Crandall, the champion leg elongator of the universe, finds it hard work to keep his in the Baptist field—must add professional beggary to his schemes of predacity. You may tie your abortive little paper to the tail of the "Ape," but that animal is too weak in the hinder legs to pull it out of a financial hole. Go pluck yourself.
Shuck your long-tailed band-made Albert Edwards trade your paper for a double-shoulder plow, gird your yam galluses and make a reasonable effort to earn an honest living. Had you expended half the nervo-muscular energy in the cotton patch that you have wasted in working your jawbone, you would have money to burn. "Weed-mongers," which means that you are entirely too light at both ends.

DAY OF JOY.

Sunday, May 17, 1914, will remain a memorable day for the 170 children who received holy communion for the first time in St. Cecilia's church. Long before the 7:30 mass began parents and friends of this large class crowded the church, parents having reason to be proud of their little ones this day. The musical programme added to the impressiveness of the mass and the occasion. In a few well chosen words the pastor expressed his joy on having brought another large class of children to their true joy—the "Bread of Life." In the afternoon the class assembled to be enrolled in the scapular and then the first communion class of 1914 was formed into the Children of Mary Sodality—to receive holy communion the first Sunday of every month.
The solemn vespers in the evening was as well attended as the morning service. Vespers being the high mass, the Rev. Bishop O'Donnell addressed the congregation, congratulating and encouraging the members of St.
Cecilia's parish. The Bishop then administered the sacrament of confirmation to 173. The choir sang and itself credit with the musical programme. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament an act of adoration and thanksgiving—brought the memorable day to a close. The pastor and those who helped prepare and direct the children received much satisfaction from the successful outcome of this blessed day.

IMPRESSIONS CEREMONY.

A very impressive ceremony, unique in many features, was performed in the Church of St. Alphonsus, Grand Rapids, Mich., recently when the Rev. Edward J. Jewell, pastor of St. Edward's church, Omer, Mich., formerly a Protestant minister, celebrated the high mass, after which his own daughter, Miss Matilda Jewell, received the white habit of the Order of St. Dominic.
Father Jewell was formerly pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, Muskegon, Mich. His wife (who died before his reception into the Catholic church) was a niece of John Mitchell, the Irish patriot. Some time ago "Father Jewell had the happiness of baptizing his daughter and giving her first holy communion. Miss Jewell's name in the Dominican order will be Sister Charles of the Infant Jesus.

AUGUSTINIANS

Fathers Matthew Carr and John Rosseter Two Early Irish Pioneers.

Made Permanent Settlement in the United States at Philadelphia.

Washington Was Among Contributors to Their First Church.

EARLY HISTORY AND FOUNDATION

By James A. Rooney.
The Augustinian Fathers, who in the eighteenth century first made a permanent settlement in the United States at Philadelphia, were an offshoot from the Irish province of their order, whence they came during the troublous era of the French Revolution, that tremendous upheaval whose utterly un-Christian and degrading characteristics have left their unalloyed impress on the manners, laws and customs of even our own day.

It was in 1796 that the pioneers of the Augustinians, Fathers Matthew Carr, a newcomer from Dublin that year, and John Rosseter, the latter the only resident missionary for some time in Delaware, established their first house in Philadelphia, then the political, social and commercial metropolis of the country. This foundation was undertaken with the advice and full approval of Bishop Carroll, of Baltimore, who shortly afterward appointed Dr. Carr one of his Vicars General, with jurisdiction over Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

In Philadelphia the Rev. Dr. Carr began the building of St. Augustine's church in the spring of 1796, the year of his arrival from Europe, and it was the fourth place of Catholic worship in the City of Brotherly Love. He received aid in money and materials from all classes of citizens, Protestant as well as Catholic, and what especially should be treasured in undying memory, a donation of $50 from George Washington. The church was opened and the first mass said in 1801 and a little later were erected the Augustinian convent and their school buildings, all of which, including the church, were destroyed by fire and violence in 1844, that fateful year of an un-Christian and anti-Catholic spirit, when not only St. Augustine's was wrecked but with it libraries, monuments and other treasures.

St. Augustine's, the mother house of the new province, became the cradle of all the Augustinian missions in the United States, thirty-six at present, as well as the center of their apostolic activities. In a few years the fathers established other foundations and missions.
Another Augustinian was Father Philip Laroche, who was one of the second Newfoundland band in 1818 and he ministered to the Catholics of Boston and New Bedford in 1820, being the first missionary who preached to the Irish of Boston in their native tongue. We find him in Newburgh and on Staten Island in 1821, at Paterson, N. J., in the same year and saying the first mass in Brooklyn in 1822.

Equally active as a missionary was Father James O'Donnell, who was professed as an Augustinian in 1832, the first in the United States. He was ordained in 1837 by Bishop Dubois, of New York, who sent him to Syracuse (now Syracuse), where he built its first Catholic church. He was at St. Paul's, Brooklyn, in 1839, and founded St. Mary's parish in what was then Williamsburg in 1841, and he found time to visit the Catholics scattered along the south shore of Long Island as far east as Sag Harbor and Montauk Point.
In Philadelphia the Augustinians instituted what is said to have been the first sodality in the United States for Catholics of either sex, the Confraternity of Our Mother of Consolation, whose sodality manual, "The Spiritual Mirror," was printed by Augustine Pagan in 1812. A copy of it is preserved in the library of Villanova monastery by Father Thomas C. Middleton, O. S. A., the historian of the order.

Besides attending to their parishioners the fathers bore the comforts of religion to those of other districts, such as Darby, Frankford, Manayunk and Haverford, where the Rev. Dr.
Hurley visited in the 20's of the last century. In 1827 he blessed the Church of St. Denis, still standing and but little changed from its primal form.

The Catholic Herald, the first Catholic periodical published in Philadelphia, was issued in 1833 by Fathers Nicholas and James O'Donnell, with the Rev. John Hughes, afterward the first Archbishop of New York, as co-founder.

Not the least among the religious and educational centers of the country is their present establishment, now the mother house of their province, at Villanova, a few miles from Philadelphia, where the visitor may view the many large and stately buildings; church, monastery, college, academy, halls for clerics and students, with full equipment for intellectual and scientific work, libraries, museums, laboratories and workshops for engineering and chemistry, and gymnasiums.
Such is the fruit of the tiny mustard seed of faith planted by the Augustinian Fathers Carr and Rosseter in 1796.—Copyright.

ENCOURAGED

Are the Founders of the St. Vincent-St. Thomas Orphan Society.

Much Interest Shown at Well Attended Meeting Last Sunday.

Next Move Will Be Organization of Branches Throughout the City.

THE FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC

The Catholic men of Louisville who have undertaken the organization of the St. Vincent-St. Thomas Orphan Society feel greatly encouraged since the well attended and enthusiastic meeting held Sunday afternoon in Bertrams Hall, at which nearly all the English-speaking Catholic congregations were represented.

William T. Mehan presided, and after prayer by the Very Rev. Father Deppen stated that the purpose of the meeting was to take such action as would lead to the formation of branches in the English-speaking societies, in order to be later affiliated with the central body, which would be made up of their representatives.
The purpose of this new society, he said, was to help sustain the orphans and maintain and improve the two homes they now occupy. It would also be the work of those assembled to further the arrangements for the Fourth of July picnic to be held on the grounds surrounding St. Vincent's Asylum.

The laws approved and adopted for the government of the society were read by Secretary Dan J. Hennessy, after which a resolution was adopted that parish meetings be called and branches organized immediately, who will report to the central officers. Upon motion it was decided to hold the next meeting on Monday night, June 1.

Thomas W. Tarry, Chairman of the committee, outlined the work for the Fourth of July picnic, making a strong appeal for united and ceaseless effort during the next seven weeks. Tickets for the picnic were distributed and can now be secured in all parts of the city.

Rev. Father Deppen, the "father" of the orphans, expressed himself highly pleased with the outlook for the society and the future of the orphans. It would be the aim of the society to increase the happiness of these little children and to maintain and safeguard them. It was eighty years since the orphans were first looked after by the saintly Mother St. Catherine, and they were wise in organizing under the sanction of the church. Father Deppen reviewed the struggle during all these years, saying that while the orphans were sheltered in a home, it still was not their own home. He had wished and prayed for such a society for twenty-five years, and it was most pleasing to note that his hopes were about to be realized. Before taking his seat he commended the St. Joseph Orphan Society and the great good that organization has done.

Rev. Father Cletus Brady, C. P., delivered a stirring address, in which he pointed to the many disadvantages that surround St. Thomas Asylum, notably the lack of water and gas, and appealed to his hearers to push their organization and require that while the orphans were distressed. The picture he painted made an impression on every one present and will aid the organization.

Before adjourning a Press Committee was named as follows: Charles Breckel, Rev. William M.
Higgins, James Dennenhold, Joseph A. Rees and Eugene O'Connell. J.
Especially gratifying was the presence of a number of members of the St. Joseph Orphan Society, who gave assurance of advice and assistance to the new organization whenever desired. It is expected the work of forming parish branches will begin at once.

NOTRE DAME WINS AGAIN.

Notre Dame won the triangular debate with Wabash College and Indiana University Friday night by its affirmative team, defeating the Wabash negative team by a unanimous decision at Notre Dame. Its negative team defeating the Indiana affirmative team at Bloomington.
The question was "Resolved, That the Initiative and Referendum Should Be Adopted in Indiana." Wabash was second, its affirmative team defeating the Indiana negative team at Crawfordsville. The members of the Notre Dame affirmative team were Eugene O'Connell, J.
Clovie Smith and Timothy Galvin.
The negative team was George Schenster, Fred Gushurst and Em-met Lanahan.

SLATTERY CONFIRMED.

Thomas D. Slattery, of Maysville who last week was appointed United States District Attorney for the Eastern district of Kentucky, succeeding Edwin P. Morrow, will soon enlarge upon his new duties, his nomination having been confirmed by the United States Senate. Slattery isn't a victim of the "thirteen jinx." In fact thirteen is a lucky number for him he is the thirteenth son of his father, and he is a pretty husky safty individual with hundreds of "clends. He is a graduate of "O" center College at Danville, and has been practicing law for twenty years with his headquarters at Maysville

AVOID SPLIT

Orange Hope Wedge Between Ministry and Irish Party Falls.

They Have Fallen Back Into Their Old Despondent Mood.

Liberals and Irish Again Face the Future With Steady Certainty.

THIRD READING NEXT TUESDAY

This week has been one of ups and downs in the House of Commons, whose nerves are more than usually sensitive, cabled Hon. T. P. O'Connor last Saturday. At this moment indeed, as the close of the night home rule struggle approaches, everybody has got into the slightly neurotic condition of passengers on board a great Atlantic liner the night before reaching New York. Looking back on the transactions of the week in the peaceful retrospect of a Saturday without a sitting of the House of Commons, I feel that everything is for the best, though I have to claim that where the tactics of the Liberal Ministry differed from the recommendations of the Irish leaders the Irish anticipations have been realized and justified, not for the first time for the twentieth time. During the tangled events of the last three years the Irish leaders have believed that, while Asquith probably would have to introduce an amending bill some time, it was a mistake to announce it until the home rule bill was nearer the statute book and until he had found out whether the Orangemen were ready to make any approach to a settlement by common agreement.

The Liberal Cabinet, however, did not agree with this view and Asquith announced his readiness to introduce the amending bill. This announcement provoked a big attack of nerves in all quarters of home rulers. The Liberal rank and file were as indignant as the Irish Nationalists, and when Redmond criticized in careful but vigorous language Asquith's mistaken tactics he was cheered wildly by the Liberals, and when he sat down after having made what all observers thought the best speech of his life there was an almost frantic demonstration from the Liberal and Irish benches. The effect of this speech was immense and immediate.

The whole situation was transformed, and though the Orangemen justified Redmond's warnings by taking up again the attitude of insolent refusal of Asquith's concessions, Liberals and Irish forgot their apprehensions and faced the future with the old and steady certainty that the home rule bill would soon be on the statute book.
But meanwhile a further indication of the growing impatience of temper in the Liberal ranks at the apparently too conciliatory attitude of Asquith found expression in a meeting of a hundred Liberal members, who sent a deputation to Asquith to remonstrate. Thus the air was cleared, and the Orangemen, who began to count on getting a wedge between the Ministry and the Irish party, and so breaking up the home rule coalition, fell back into their old despondent mood. They tried another angle of division on the distribution of the statute book arrangement of the business of the House of Commons, and were beaten, and once more the home rule forces, full of the spirit of victory, confront the broken and dispirited Tory opposition. Those behind the scenes find explanation, and perhaps even justification, for the attitude of the Ministry in the fact that disloyalty in the army still is so rampant that some difficulty might be found in moving troops to Ulster.

When that issue has to be faced it will be faced, but the moment has not yet come for facing it.
That moment will come when the home rule bill beyond the power of a general election or a Tory Ministry to destroy it. The bill will be read a third time on Tuesday, May 26, at the latest. It goes that night to the House of Lords, under the provisions of the Parliament act, for one month. At the end of that month, even if the Ministry were beaten or Parliament dissolved, it automatically becomes law. The bill, thus placed beyond recall, makes the Liberal Ministry and the Irish party masters of the situation.
The Orangemen then have to choose between accepting such amendments in the new amending bill as the Liberals and Irish can approve, or face the passage of the bill into law just as it stands.

Few people doubt that the Orangemen will take the wiser alternative, but as they are not wise, one further attempt may be made to destroy the Ministry and the home rule bill. This may take the shape of such rising in Ulster as may force the Government to order troops to the province, and if any refusal to obey orders should follow would compel the Government to go to a general election without the home rule bill reaching the statute-book. But though sporadic rioting is possible, and though the Nationalists there are fretting under constant insults and provocation on the Ulster volunteers, no organized outbreak of civil war is least likely.

The Orange leaders seem determined up to the present to control their forces rather than face the awful responsibility of civil war. The Government will not allow anything to prevent the fulfilling of its great and solemn pledge to put home rule into law and beyond all power of recall.

INTO ETERNAL REST.

On Friday afternoon of last week there passed to its eternal reward the soul of Mrs. Margaret McGinn, the dearly loved wife of Joseph P. Mc-Ginn, 513 West Chestnut street.
For months Mrs. McGinn had been lingering in the arms of death, but with true Catholic faith she responded to the call, fortified by the frequent reception of the sacraments and the prayers of her many friends.
Born in this city sixty years ago, she was one of the most highly respected members of the Cathedral congregation. Besides her husband she had two children, Mrs. L. P. Glass, of Louisville, and Mrs. Mary Pottinger, of Owensboro. A model wife, a perfect mother and a rare friend, she has been taken away in her demise. Her hospitality was boundless, and while always keyed to humanity's sorrows or joys, no spiritual or temporal work of mercy ever appealed to her in vain. Her funeral was held Monday morning from the Cathedral, when Rev. Father Rock, assisted by the solemn requiem mass, assisted by Father Eugene Donohue as deacon and Father Frankenberg as sub-deacon. Father Rock, in the sermon, spoke of the "exemplary life of the deceased, the Christian fortitude and beautiful Catholic spirit she always exhibited. To the bereaved husband and children goes out the sympathy of the community.

ENTHUSIASTIC.

Monday night the meeting hall of Division 3, A. O. H., was crowded with members and candidates, who were enthusiastic when they heard the report of the Home Committee.
This report was that the division would be able to hold its first meeting in the new club house on June 1. President Maloney had the pleasure of obligating eight more candidates, who will prove staunch Hilbernians. The Home Committee reported additional donations of $100 to the building fund, and also the purchase of some handsome furniture for the hall and other rooms of the house. The building, they said, is all finished with the exception of the papering, which will be completed this week. Announcement was made that the Hilberninn Social Club will entertain with euchre and lotto party in the new home on Tuesday evening, June 2, and the division extends a cordial invitation to the general public and the Hilbernians of the Falls Cities to attend. The new home is located at Eighteenth and Portland avenue, and is well worth a visit.

FATHER FALLON'S FIRST MASS.

The ordination to the holy priesthood of the Rev. John Fallon, of St.
John's congregation, who has completed his theological studies at St.
Melard's in Indiana, will occur here on June 6, when the Right Rev.
Bishop O'Donnell will confer holy orders and raise him to his high calling. On Sunday, June 7, Father Fallon will celebrate his first mass at St. John's church, corner Clay and Walnut, an event in which the entire congregation will be interested.
While all arrangements for this solemn event have not been made, the pastor, the Rev. C. W. Sherry, if for has received the acceptance to assist at this mass of those priests in the city who were former members of this parish. Among them are the Rev. Michael Melody, chaplain of St.
Vincent's Orphan Home; the Rev.
John T. Hill, pastor of St. Ann's church; the Rev. George Connor, pastor of St. William's; the Rev.
John D. Kalar, pastor of St.
Columba's, and the Rev. Francis O'Connor, assistant at St. Cecilia's.

ARREST ANNA LOWRY.

Upon the sworn complaint of a Catholic resident of Winona, Minn., who was present at a lecture delivered on Sunday, March 15, by Anna Lowry, who styles herself an "exnun," a warrant was issued for her arrest on the charge of having used language unfit for public address.
Anna Lowry left Winona immediately after her lecture before the warrant could be served. The arrest was made on May 11 when Anna Lowry appeared again in the State of Minnesota. She was taken to Winona and placed in the city jail. The following day she was given a hearing, at which she pleaded "not guilty." Her trial followed on May 16. In giving his decision the Judge stated that the evidence on both sides attested the guilt of the prisoner.
Sentence was pronounced and penalty was fixed as a fine or a period of confinement in jail. The declaration of the Judge was followed by a prohibition on the part of the Mayor of the city forbidding Anna Lowry to come to any public hall in Winona for the purpose of disseminating her nucleous and immoral teaching. The city of Winona is to be congratulated on this summary treatment of this exponent of anti-American and anti-Christian bigotry.

VISITED CAREY SHRINE.

Rev. Richard Murphy, O. M. C., of St. Anthony's church, and Rev.
Edmund Kaiser, O. M. C., pastor of St. Peter's, were in Carey, Ohio, last week, where they assisted at the semi-annual pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Consolation where many miraculous cures have taken place. Father Murphy reached the Sunday evening sermon and Father Kaiser preached Thursday night. The annual pilgrimage to this noted shrine is made during the month of August.

BECKHAM'S

Prospects Encouraging Opposition From Republicans and Progressives.

Democrats Not Sanguine of Success in the Event of His Nomination.

Percy Haley Confiding Attention to Finding Leader For This District.

ALL PULLING FOR CAPT. FOX

The Kentucky correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer is authority for the statement that at present writing Beckham looks the strongest in the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, this being gleefully reprinted in the Evening Post, but neither the writer or the Post offered any explanation for the fact that Republican and Progressive candidates are springing up like mushrooms, they calculating that if the ex-Governor is given the nomination they will have a splendid chance for victory in November, and many wise political sharps are predicting that if ex-Gov. Willson secures the Republican nomination he is sure to draw strength from the Democratic ranks, as in his previous political races, and in addition his nomination by the Republicans would heal the breach between them and the Progressives. Right here in Louisville, where the Progressives are stronger in relative proportion than any other part of the country, two of the foremost leaders, former City Attorney Clayton Blakey and C. C. Stoll, former member of the Board of Public Works, are favorable to the fusion idea, and it is believed that they will endorse either ex-Gov. Willson or Richard P.
Ernst, of Covington, for the nomination.

There can be no denying the fact that the possibility of Beckham's success in the primary has given the Republicans and Progressives renewed hope, while on the other hand this state of affairs has set many Democrats to thinking, they realizing that the nomination of Beckham puts a United States Senatorship in jeopardy for the Democratic party, and many of those who have announced their intention of voting for the ex-Governor, if for no other reason than to eliminate him and his man Haley from activity in State politics, have begun to waver in their determination, and it is predicted that the Beckham boom may begin to wane in the near future. It has been freely predicted in these columns that the city of Louisville, from a Democratic standpoint, was unalterably opposed to Beckham from any angle, and with the Democratic organization keeping hands off strictly a big majority vote would be registered against his chances, this contention being a Democracy of the Post, but the continual presence of Percy Haley in Louisville buttonholing leaders and near leaders around the Seelbach Hotel seems ample proof of this claim. Up to date he has secured no one to placate the Louisville Democracy even among that class of politicians who couldn't designate the ward boundaries if given leadership.

A pretty three-cornered fight for the Progressive nomination for Congress is going on in this district between Prof. George Ragsdale, who outside school hours plays politics; Labe Phelps, formerly a Democrat and honored by that party, and H. I.
Fox, who is now busy trying to furnish information to the grand jury on race horse gambling. Wood Axton's choice will receive the call, and for the good of all concerned it is earnestly hoped that Fox is chosen to run against Swager Sherry, if for no other reason than to forever put an end to that guff from his friends and the Herald, referring to him as "the man who made the remarkable race against Sherry," never allowing for the fact that in 1912 he was carried on the Roosevelt kille, and the average voter didn't even know he was on

DUTY WELL DONE.

With commingled feelings of pleasure and pride admirers of United States Senator O'Gorman throughout the country read his able and patriotic address against the shameful surrender of American rights in the greatest engineering achievement of the age, rights secured by the application of American genius and by the lavish expenditure of American money. With the Irish World, we are glad that he delivered on the floor of the United States Senate the ablest of the many able speeches against the humiliating and the treacherous proposal that the United States confess before the world that it deliberately violated its solemnly pledged word when Congress enacted that American coastwise shipping should be permitted to use the Panama canal free of charge. Senator O'Gorman's cogent argument has had a wonderful effect, and to some it appears that it influenced President Wilson in his address at the Barry monument unveiling.

MENACE WHINES.

Rev. Father F. F. Rossman, of the diocese of Wheeling, W. Va., has instituted suit against the Menace for $50,000 in retaliation for vile and filthy charges published in that organ last fall. The mudgutter sheet in its latest issue whines that Father Rossman waited until its finances were at a low ebb before bringing suit and is printing a blank to be circulated by its dupes for the purpose of raising a defense fund. When the case comes to trial the Menace will probably duplicate the performance in the Philadelphia libel suit—plead guilty to lying but at the same time gather in a few more shekels from the sucker brigade.

GETTING TOGETHER.

The Columbian shows a fair spirit in declaring that Catholics should take part with their Protestant fellow citizens in all movements to improve the condition of the poor, to put down commercialized vice, to purify politics, to beautify their home town, to regulate dangerous traffics and to promote in other ways the common welfare. We are all citizens of the one country, and on the ground of our citizenship we have a level where we can meet and co-operate with people of all denominations. When we come into close relations with our neighbors in patriotic enterprises we shall know them better personally and esteem them more highly and they will understand us better and think more of us. They will be more willing and ready to co-operate with us in preventing the dissemination of lies and calumnies against our church and in checking the onslaughts of vicious anti-Catholic literature. Let us get together in all that makes for a kinder feeling between man and man and for a better and happier country.

EMINENTLY PRACTICAL.

An eminently practical suggestion of the Catholic Union of Missouri is contained in the request, couched in the form of a resolution, and directed to Catholics everywhere in the country, asking them to refrain from visiting the Panama-Pacific Exposition on those days on which the notorious ex-Mayor of Rome, Ernesto Nathan, attends in any official capacity. This resolution, adopted by the State convention at Jefferson City, provides an excellent means of showing the displeasure of American Catholics with the selection of Nathan as the official representative of the Italian Government to the exposition.

WOMEN AND STYLE.

The prevailing styles of dress, which are not only unbecoming to most women, and many really indecent as well as a menace to life and limbs, are causing thinking women to speak out and take action. The folly of the style craze is well set forth by a sensible woman in the following:

"Just as long as women bow down and become slaves to fashion, as most are now doing, just so long will extreme styles be forced upon them. As long as we suffer ourselves to be governed by fashion we surely can not consider ourselves competent to vote. We have made ourselves the laughing stock of men in general and if women wish to stand shoulder to shoulder with men in the business and political world they must show themselves worthy of honor and trust. Men do not want us to lose our femininity nor do they wish us to be mannish in our deportment nor as foolish as we undoubtedly appear now. I love to see women wear pretty things and to look like dainty, lovable creatures. Because one appears like this does not mean that she has not intelligence to compete in the business world. In some ways women are superior to men; in most ways we are as capable as they, but in dress and deportment we show much weakness. We ought to stand firmly together in this matter of dress reform and not allow fashion to dictate what we shall or shall not wear. We are not obliged to buy dresses which are unbecoming, uncomfortable or suggestive of indecency just because the shops are displaying that kind. If we would pass them by we would soon see something better provided for us. Women who are mothers of boys who will soon be men should think that just as they are leading those boys up to an honorable manhood, just so will the men be influenced later in life. If we dress in a way to lower ourselves in their esteem we fall in our mission in life. Our dress and deportment are sign posts which show the way; let them point to that which is best and highest, not towards those things which are foolish, suggestive and indecent."

AWFUL, ISN'T IT?

The Menace and Peril are publishing flaring headlines telling how the noble A. P. A. lecturers, composed mainly of ex-priests, ex-crooks, etc., are being assaulted by Roman thugs at different points throughout the country. It is queer that all Catholics haven't the patience to stand idly by and hear the good name of their daughter and sister, who may be in the convent, reviled and insulted by these fakirs, isn't it?

NOWHERE.

Why is it, asks the Catholic Tribune, that men who rant at the Catholic church and decry her fancied aristocracy fail to note that the man of matchless parts who religiously rules over her three hundred million people today rose to be their Peter from a poor Italian peasant boy? Where in all the world is to be found another such demonstration of democracy?

Catholics are not protesting the appointment of Ernesto Nathan as representative of Italy to the Panama Exposition because he is a Jew. On the contrary, they are opposed to him not because he is a Jew, but because he is a renegade Jew and an ardent atheist, who has wantonly insulted the head of their church and all Christians.

The new child labor law goes into effect June 18, after which girls under eighteen and boys under fourteen will not be allowed to engage in street occupations.

SACRED HEART CHURCH.

Every detail has been completed by the ladies of the Sacred Heart congregation for the reunion and candy pulling to be held Monday afternoon and evening in the school building at Seventeenth and Broadway. The ladies will be assisted by a number of men of the parish, who will introduce a number of surprising features that all will enjoy. There will be the country store, booths and refreshments. This candy pulling is given for the entertainment of the Sacred Heart school children in the afternoon and for their parents at night, the proceeds being for the benefit of the school fund. All friends of the church will be welcome.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS EXCURSION.

The Catholic Knights of the Falls City will conduct an excursion to St. Louis, Mo., on Sunday, June 14, their train leaving the Tenth-street depot at 7:45 in the morning and arriving back at 11 o'clock that night. Nothing will be left undone to make the trip an enjoyable one, as has been all others undertaken by the Central Committee. At St. Louis the excursionists will be given a rousing reception, and there they will participate in the silver jubilee of one of the priests of that place. The round trip fare will be $1.65, which will also pay for a river ride.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The national convention of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will be held in Indianapolis next week, beginning Tuesday morning, when the delegates will attend high mass at St. John's church, and the business sessions will be held at the Hotel Severin. Louisville will have a representation of twenty-two delegates.

ST. ANN'S CHURCH.

Last Sunday was another happy day for the parents and children of St. Ann's parish, of which the Rev. John T. Hill is the pastor. The church and sanctuary were beautifully decorated with spring plants and flowers and the altars ablaze with lights for the twenty-two children who received their first holy communion at the high mass at 8 o'clock in the morning. The church was thronged with people, who returned again at 2:30 in the afternoon when with impressive ceremony they were enrolled and received the scapular.

The contracting parties are well known in German Catholic circles, and a large gathering of their friends were present to witness the ceremony and extend congratulations.

challenger is hailed as a marvel of promise, for no other reason apparently than that her model is eccentric. It is all very well to speak of her as "the most wonderful boat of the kind ever built in Europe," but the American designers have had a thing or two up their sleeves also. Without doubt one of the new creations will soon be declared a world beater, for our yacht architects have always improved upon their old designs. Before the end of May the new boats will probably have their trial sprints under the eyes of the experts and Sir Thomas will learn he has something to beat.HINTS ON STYLE.A good deal of dark, changeable taffeta is seen, especially in afternoon gowns.There seems to be no limit to the favor in which moire ribbons and silks are held.Light net top laces continue to have things all their own way in the fashion world.Middy dresses, sailors, Norfolk and Russian effects are all good for children's wear.Corset waists are actually becoming fashionable, the legitimate result of the desire for a pliant figure.Accordian plaited dresses are coming in again; usually they have wide sashes over the hips and thin tunics.Organdie having started as collars, is increasing in favor for other parts of dresses. Some entire dresses are made of it.The summer suits of cotton or linen are no longer designed with any thought of laundering; they all have to be dry cleaned.Dainty leaf and flower patterns are among the most important in veillings. Insect and butterfly designs are used in the beauty patch sorts.RECENT DEATHS.Mrs. Caroline Mann, an aged and respected member of the Cathedral congregation, died Sunday afternoon laid until the funeral, which took friends and workers in all the large to support the Nationalist volunteer movement which was started, for the Crown and Government of Ireland on the same lines as the Ulster force.

Thomas London, Nationalist member of the House of Commons for East Limerick, in a speech said the day the home rule bill was placed on the statute book 200,000 volun-

What the Club Plan Is And What It Means to You

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 4 meets Monday night. The Menace is now publishing a fake Hibernian oath.

Enchire and lotto by Hibernian Social Club in club house June 2.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Indianapolis have organized another juvenile division.

More than 300 women will sing at the memorial services for deceased members in Boston.

Twenty-five candidates received the degrees from the San Francisco County Board meeting.

Every division should insist on their delegates being present at County Board meetings.

With united support for the annual picnic each division treasury will be materially helped.

The membership contest between Minneapolis and St. Paul will close with a great initiation on May 31.

Five divisions, numbering 1,500 men, turned out at the cornerstone laying of St. Peter's school at Hartford, Conn.

Lieut. Gov. Barry was a special guest and delivered an address at the banquet of the Ladies' Auxiliary at Malden, Mass.

Many eyes are turning toward Division 3 and it need not be surprising if there is a consolidation before the end of the year.

The national convention at Norfolk will be a grand reunion of the Irish race. Whether members or not, all are invited.

The Hibernians of Urbana, Ohio, have presented a complete set of the Catholic Encyclopedia to the Public Library of that city.

Cleveland Hibernians have set a mark for 1,000 new members for 1914, and over 300 candidates have applied for the first initiation.

During the month of June there will be business and work for all the divisions, which will end for the presence of members at meetings.

Ladies' Auxiliary 5 of San Francisco will award a beautiful silk American flag to the society having the largest representation at its annual ball.

Following the big initiation at Imogene, Iowa, 200 Hibernians sat down to the banquet, over which Rev. Edward Hayes presided as toastmaster.

The auxiliaries of St. Paul will give entertainments for the fund for the St. Patrick's chapel in the new Cathedral. One given last week by the Auxiliary 4 netted $500.

Members who do not attend at least one meeting a month are lax in their duty. Among this class are many who are always first to put in their claims against their divisions.

Massachusetts Hibernians will participate in the parade at Cohasset next Saturday, when the monument to the Irish immigrants who lost their lives when the British brig St. John was wrecked on Minot's Ledge, over sixty years ago, will be unveiled.

Division 1 of Covington sent the following greeting to National President Regan, who was one of the speakers at the Barry monument exercises in Washington last Saturday:

"Kentucky, the State of the earliest pioneers of the West, sends greetings to you, our worthy National President, that the Barrys and others will be there to do homage to the man."

HOLDING THEIR OWN.

Despite the crippled condition of the Louisville half team they have held their own during the past week and are now contesting with Milwaukee for the top rung of the ladder, the latter team being lucky thus far to have no one out of their regular lineup with the exception of Manager Clark, while the Colonels have been minus the services of Shortstop Beumiller and Second Baseman McLarry, the latter being especially missed on account of his hitting. The Kansas City team will play again this afternoon and tomorrow, the Milwaukee team coming Monday for four games. Some rattling games are promised, these old warriors now waking up with the advent of warm weather, and can be counted on as a pennant contender. It has been suggested by many of the fans that, on the return of Beumiller, Cloutier be shifted to third base, using Dodge as the utility infielder.

FONTAINE FERRY.

For its second week Fontaine Ferry's management announces a new and varied selection of attractions, which are expected to tax the big and beautiful resort to capacity. The vaudeville bill at the park's variety show is one that spells "class" from start to finish, and will be headlined by Gertrude Barnes, the well known prima donna affixed to as "the new star of 1914." An entirely new programme will be provided by Natello and his band in the free concerts, introducing selections from the latest grand and light operas and ragtime.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC
A Sister Recommends it Most Highly. 3 Kewaskum, Wis., August, 1913.
Many of the Sisters are using Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic. I tried one bottle for nervousness and sleeplessness, and noticed not alone a marked improvement in my sleep, but felt much better since, therefore recommend the Tonic most highly to all those suffering similarly.
Sr. M. Alaconne.
Helen G. McLaughlin, of O'Leary, N. D., writes that Sister Koenig's Nerve Tonic is certainly an excellent Nerve Tonic, because she was badly run down from nervousness and sleeplessness, but after taking the Tonic her nerves became stronger and she slept well.
Rev. J. Riley, of Seymour, Ind., says he took Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, which he suffered from since 14 years. Since then he sleeps good and recommends the Tonic to all needing it for that purpose.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Trinity Council team made their debut in the Catholic baseball league last Sunday afternoon, succeeding the Kentucky Oaks, who were dropped by the league for violation of the constitution, the newcomers being given a hard proposition at the outset, being opposed by Capt. The Olympics still continued their proud record by winning over the Imperials in an 8 to 1 game, the West Broadway boys now being figured as a sure pennant contender. ### ACCEPTED INVITATION.

The meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., was poorly attended Tuesday night, President Tarry being the only officer present, and therefore but little business was transacted. Thomas Cleary, of the Visiting Committee, reported that there were none on the sick list. President Maloney, Secretary Hession and John O'Connor, of Division 3, were present and on behalf of their division extended a cordial invitation to the members to be present at the first meeting in their new hall on June 1, and also to attend the Hibernian Social Club's party on the night of June 2. The invitation was accepted, and it is expected Division 1 will be well represented. President Tarry will have the members notified of the next meeting, when much important business must be transacted.

GLOWING SUCCESS.

The glowing success of the first week of the regular season at Riverview Park augurs well for the success of the whole season. The high quality of the free concerts and first class vocal and musical programme proved an attraction that brought crowds to the park. During the daytime there has been a great attendance of children, who enjoy the swings and devices provided for their amusement. The programs for next week is one of those rare offerings in which every number might take headlines proportions with an ordinary show.
